

Soundcheck: This week in music

Oct. 3, 2013

Written by
Daniele Cusentino
Enquirer contributor

Fiesta Mojo

Jimmy Heath, also known as “Little Bird,” is a talented jazz saxophonist known for composing Chet Baker and Art Pepper’s album “Playboys,” and playing alongside greats like Miles Davis, Milt Jackson and Dizzy Gillespie. He’s scheduled to perform selections from his Grammy-nominated album, “Little Man, Big Band,” plus new and classic arrangements of other original compositions and jazz standards with the Cincinnati Contemporary Jazz Orchestra. This is your chance to see a jazz great in a beautiful setting!

Details: 7:30 p.m., Friday, Corbett Center for the Performing Arts, West Corry Street and Jefferson Avenue, Clifton Heights. $25. 513-556-6638 or www.ccm.uc.edu.