

Movers & Makers

Cincinnati

Involved. Informed. Inspired.

ARTS/CULTURE NEWS, COMMUNITY EVENT, HISTORY, PERFORMING ARTS, VISUAL ART

What to do, hear, see | July 5-11

by Movers and Makers • July 4, 2017

Happy Recovery-from-Independence Day! Now back to our regularly scheduled programming...enjoy the second half of summer. Below are a few options for the relatively quiet week ahead.

CULTURAL EXHIBITS

Heritage Village Museum | 11450 Lebanon Rd., Sharon Woods. 513-563-9484

- Saturday-Sunday, July 8-9. "Civil War Weekend"

OK, history buffs, time to muster your troops and march on Sharonville. Give the kids a taste of what war was like more than 150 years ago, including battle re-enactments, hands-on activities and building tours. While you're there, check out the current exhibits at this little-known gem of a museum: "First Ladies of Fashion," replicas of gowns worn by first ladies, and "Exiled: Ohio's Indian Removal," about the legal, organized and sometimes violent extraction of Ohio's native people.

FAIRS/FESTIVALS

Second Sunday on Main | Main Street, Over-the-Rhine

- Sunday, July 9, noon-5 p.m. Eclectic street festival

While Vine St. and Washington Park have been the early focus in the reinvigoration of Over-the-Rhine, so far, things on Main St. are really beginning to heat up. This is a great chance to hang out and get a feel for the many changes happening now, and those just around the corner, including the new Ziegler Park and pool just to the east. Bring your suit. Take a dip!

FILM

The Mini Microcinema | 1329 Main St., Over-the-Rhine

- Friday, July 7-Aug. 17. “Seven Weeks of Cinema”

And speaking of Main St., no need to wait for Sunday to go and explore. This Friday kicks off a summer season of adventurous cinema, with 26 evenings of movies before Labor Day. Tired of Hollywood summer blockbusters? Plan your visit now...

MUSIC

Cincinnati Contemporary Jazz Orchestra | Memorial Hall, 1225 Elm St., Over-the-Rhine. 513-280-8181

- Friday, July 7, 7:30 p.m. “We Gotta Shout!”

In 1963, the Dukes of Dixieland jazz band joined forces with Clara Ward and Her Gospel Singers for a landmark recording. This will be the first live performance of these songs, performed by the CCJO and vocalists representing church choirs from around the Tri-State. Leading the ensemble will be Adrian Cunningham, minister of music at New Jerusalem Baptist Church. Something tells me The MEMO will be rockin’ in ways it has not yet experienced. Come add your voice to the chorus.

Clara Ward and Her Gospel Singers

Cincinnati Symphony | Mayerson JCC, 8485 Ridge Rd., Amberley Village. 513-381-3300